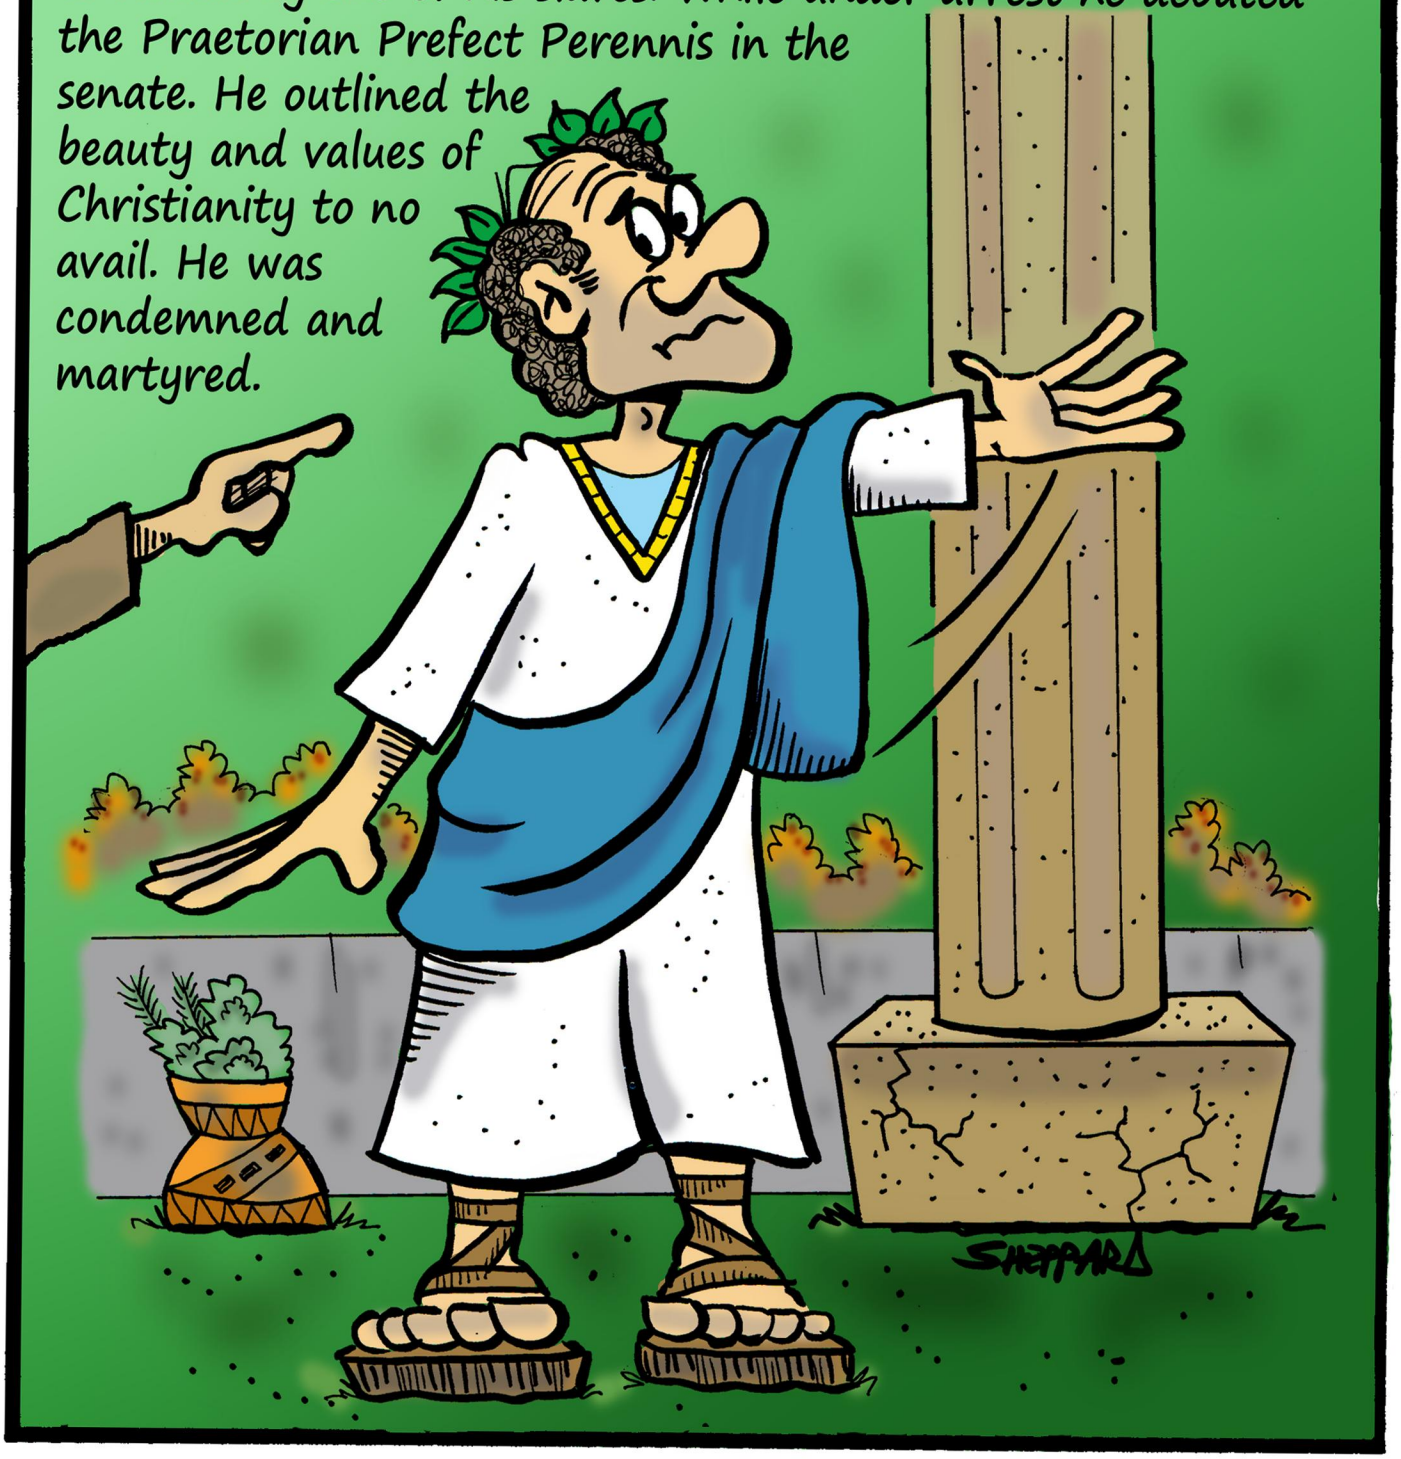
Catholic Online
INFORM - INSPIRE - IGNITE

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Appollonius, a Roman senator, was accused of being a Christian by one of his slaves. While under arrest he debated the Praetorian Prefect Perennis in the senate. He outlined the beauty and values of Christianity to no avail. He was condemned and martyred.



Written & Illustrated by John Sheppard

Saints Fun Facts © - Copyright 2015 Catholic Online – All Rights Reserved catholic.org